ABOUT COMPANY

WEBA is one of the largest manufacturing and trading companies in the gas industry in Poland. Specialized in providing comprehensive solution for supplying natural gas and LPG for industrial and residential needs.

PT Weba Gas Indonesia is the Indonesian subsidiary of European manufacturing company Grupa WEBA Ltd, established in 1981 with its headquarter in Poznan, Poland.

Based in Jakarta, Weba Gas Indonesia distribute a full range of products for natural gas distribution networks and house gas connections in the downstream sector. We provide products and solution for low, medium, and upper medium pressure up to 16 bar. Weba also supply gas equipment of other well-known European manufacturers.

Using years of production experience, each and every Weba product is manufactured to the highest quality European Union standards. We've built a reputation for quality, reliability, and attention to detail. We focus on solving difficult gas installation application challenges through innovation with an uncompromising focus on reliability. Our European technical service division design and delivers complete customized package solution to solve client's problems and simultaneously meet Indonesian requirements.

since 1981

COMPANY HISTORY

1981

The company is founded construction of gas networks and house connection in Wielkopolska region Poland.

Weba Gas Indonesia establishment.

1981

The company's dynamic growth and one million gas connections sold are a testamen to Weba Group's realibility as a partner.

Quality in practice.

In our offer you will find the only system solutions on the market for the construction of gas connections in all versions required in the country.

With WEBA products you can be sure that the whole will meet the technical and legal requirements for gas installations.

The development of proprietary projects and clarification of the technology of gas points and stations allowed to produce them in the course of serial production based on a modular structure.

That is why our gas units are characterized by a uniform standard and design, as well as the possibility of extension and retrofitting at any time.

GAS NETWORK SOLUTION

WEBA specializes in manufacturing household gas points, measuring and reducing stations (MRS) and reducing station (RS), along with gas trains in various combination, specifically designed to satisfy relevant, state regulations.

RESIDENTIAL GAS NETWORK EQUIPMENT

Ready-made installation sets can be used to introduce gas installation into building in quick and safe manner.

Complete sets are designed to eliminate possible mistakes of gas installers.

All elements from single source.

COMMERCIAL GAS NETWORK EQUIPMENT

WEBA provides a comprehensive range of R&M stations which are designed, engineered, and tested to comply with client specification as well as International Standards.

INDUSTRIAL GAS NETWORK EQUIPMENT

WEBA modular design of MRS and RS stations

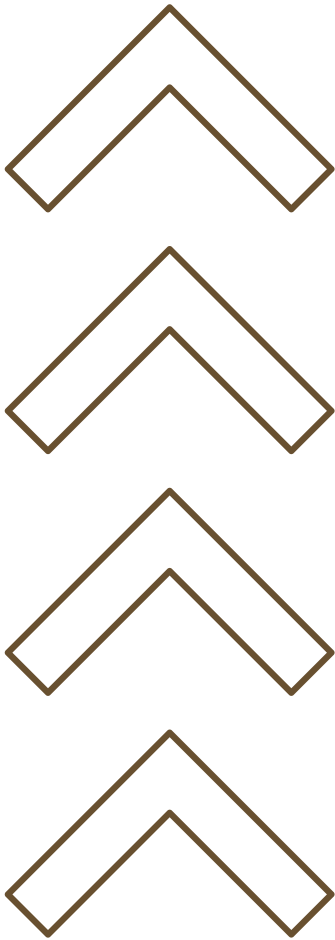

It is an approach that subdivides a system into smaller parts called modules of LEGO bricks, that can be independently created and then used in different systems.

Certain modules can be added or removed without altering the rest of MRS station.
